HOMEcoming 1977 YOU & ME

There was a ton of planning, pumping, practicing, preparing and participation by the Student Council and a lot of L-P students for Homecoming '77. It was capped-off by a marvelous "You and Me" dance Saturday night of Super Week.

Queen Sue Uranich presided over activities from the parade to coronation along with the royal court, standing, below: Julie Brandner, Lori Grusk, Ann Just, Meg Crane, Marianne Halstead, and Lynn Spelich.

It was a night, they say, to remember.

Nearly 400 members of L-P foreign language clubs and their guests ate (ethnic foods), drank (Coke and 7-UP) and were made merry (by skits and songs) at the annual International Banquet in mid-November.

These photos depict the action of a French night club scene, the Spanish version of Snow White, and the German community-sing "schnitzelbank." There were other songs, too, by the AFS Club and a choir of St. Bede academy nuns.

INTERNATIONAL BANQUET

The food at the International Banquet was legend and endless — viands from a thousand shores. Senior Lynn Spelich was Ms. of Ceremonies. Mr. Lyon, general chairman.

SADIE

The largest-group-ever DID "The Sadie" on Thanksgiving eve — under new conditions.

They danced in the Old Cafeteria from 9:30 'til 11:30 p.m. to the great sound of J.E.B. Stuart. They lined-up and sat for pictures in the Senior lounge. They were hitched and honeymooned in the second floor corridor. They played games in the Old Cafeteria, too.

Scott Kowalczyk and Karen Mirtich were Sadie King and Queen. Nancy Davito and Pete Anderes, left, were outstanding in their "Beauty and the Beast" costumes.

Christmas '77

A Matthiessen auditorium sell-out, CHRISTMAS '77 officially rekindled holiday spirits while featuring selections of six student choral groups under the direction of Miss Everhart and Mr. Manahan.

Nice Guys . . .

The L-P Cavalier football team, in living red-n-green, is an example of a group of nice guys, who also happen to be fine high school football players, who wound up the 1977 season battling Joliet Catholic for all the marbles in the state 4-A playoffs.

The score of the game: Joliet Catholic 30, L-P 6.

The score is immaterial to a season that thoroughly delighted area fans, students, coaches and the players themselves.

The 1977 Cavaliers set all kinds of records: the only team in L-P history to win 11 football games in one season;

the first team to get into the IHSA finals; the only team sporting two 1,000-yard running backs in the same formation; a team that was snowdrift-deep in talent, desire and compatibility.

There were no superstars on the 1977 squad. Whichever eleven were on the field at any given moment was an all-star combination.

There were those in the wings, too, waiting to go on stage for the action — who had their roles down pat, almost as smooth as the lead players.

Sure, there were stand-outs.

Like flyweight Don Opsal, who followed the blocks for slants off tackle to the tune of 1,200 yards.

Or, Jack Tidaback, who provided free transportation downfield for at least three would-be tacklers every play. He wasn't exactly stationary, either, tallying nearly 1,000 yards on the season — many times vital yards adding to the string of L-P first-downs-rushing.

Or, STP — Super Tom Pomije — who snagged more last-second passes than Oakland's Fred Belitnikoff. And, intercepted enough enemy throws to rupture any opposing quarterback's ego.

Or, Frank Valle. Quiet Franko, who, when he wasn't busting through the line for sacks and tackles, or bulldozing pathways for L-P ball carriers, could have been a candidate for a three-bell MVP award for the Most Vital Parents.

Or, "Johnny D" Dicarlo, whose mile wide smile was only exceeded by his range in the secondary, covering aerals from here to there.

Or, Lyle Piecha, who used his arm like a rifle for nearly 500 yards, and his foot like a cannon forcing safetymen to back-pedal into the end zones.

And, there were many more "non-stars," nice guys on the squad, too.

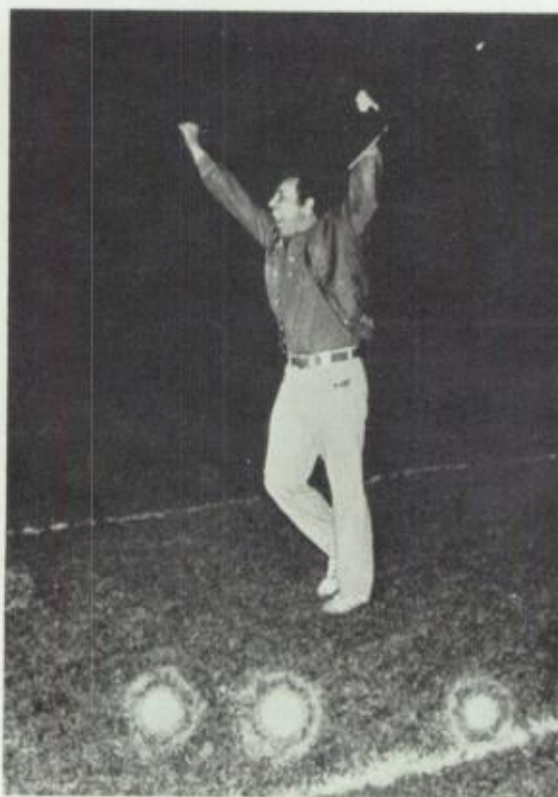

Who forgets the pass that junior Bob Windy intercepted to halt the Evergreen Park onslaught in the final 22 seconds, or his first TD in the Kewanee game?

Or, that Greg Marini decoyed more players than an undercover agent — so many times that when Piecha did go to him, the end zone became Cavalier Country?

All of us remember the thrilling performances of Boehm, Ewert and "Bird" Piercy, and Hobneck, Andy Senica, Martyn, Galetti, Phelps, and a dozen more.

All nice guys, too.

Maybe nice-breeds-nice. You'll have to travel a long way to match the coaching staff of the 1977 L-P Cavaliers. Competitors, dynamos, tigers-on-the-sidelines, to be sure. Low-key, gentle men off-the-field. Marini, Panizzi, Bauer, Wirtz. The kind of men that inspire those who would be led — those who would learn the techniques of football and the philosophy of team play.

All eyes had been on the Cavaliers since their only loss to Ottawa; since they snapped-back to knock off the remaining NCIC foes; since they downed Streater to clinch a bid to the '77 playoffs.

Eyes were on the record, and on the players, individually.

And what people saw were young men who cared about the game and each other. Who seemed not to care in the least who made the yardage, who made the columns and the sportscasts.

We're not certain how to say this:

Occasionally, there must be just-the-right chemistry among members of high school football teams in every school. In every school, sometimes, there must be a perfect meshing of gears, each cog pulling its own weight, and each recognizing that all the other cogs are doing likewise.

We had that kind of team at L-P in 1977.

And, when this happens in one season, then no amount of handicapping by the "Jimmy, The Greek's" of this world, can predict that team's ultimate strength.

Neither can any of us predict the value that each team member will have derived from such an experience.

Salute, then, the members of the 1977 L-P High school football team — second in the state 4-A bracket — who have proved to themselves in one season what many of us take a lifetime to learn: "Nice guys DON'T finish last!"

L-People

This is L-People. Your 1978 yearbook. And, we hope you like it. Today. And, 20 years from today.

Our job will have been done if this book helps you recall memories of your time here at L-P, and the marks you left on the school and your fellow students.

We, and all the staff members (see them on Pages 28-29) acknowledge our appreciation to those who have so willingly cooperated in this publication:

Mr. "T" for his suggestions and encouragements and prodding,

Photographers of the La Salle News-Tribune, who provided many of the sports photos,

The Board of Education, L-P clubs and organizations, and the 1,700 students, who supported this 1978 yearbook.

L-People has been our pleasure. May it continue to be yours.
